This business is a groundwork and civil engineering contractor.

Funding is required to bridge a gap in cash flow. The business had a large non-paying customer in December. This has had a knock on effect on their cash flow. The business is starting a large contract on the 10th of June, this project is worth £358,160. They'll receive £75,000 30 days after the job begins and £75,000 at the end of the next quarter.

This funding will be used to fund the upcoming project until the first payment is received.

Jordan has clean personal credit and is currently living in his wife's property.
