Joseph and Ian started the company in 2019, they have been involved within the entertainment industry for over 30 years now, infact celebrating their 30th on 4th of July, they run night clubs and theatre event the place called Funny Girls in Black pool alongside major other places , they also have different bars and coffee houses across the market, the funding is to provide some cashflow to celebrated the event an some marketing budget. They have some Returned DD which isnt exactly their fault as they had a credit card fraud through Stripe payments which they had to tackle through delayed payments, I have attached the email from Stripe mentioning that,
