eBay seller under the link above – Please see store:

Ashraf has run his store on eBay from 2020, he naturally covers all areas in terms of household products and beauty products, however it could be anything he finds that he knows he can capitalise on.

He's very vigilant and has seen his company grow year on year. The purpose of the loan would be to capitalise on a few products that hes found he can make a good return on and to have the cash flow over 12 months to keep buying as there a lot of recent trending items he can stock up on.
